WE HIGHLY RECOMMEND THE FOLLOWING EXCEPTIONAL DINING EXPERIENCE:

Redbeard's Sports Bar & Grill - located atop scenic Mt. Washington

Take the Monongahela Incline from Station Square (the red-brick Mon. Incline Station building is located across Carson Street from the Smithfield Street Bridge, just a short five minute walk from the Sheraton). Enjoy the magnificent view of downtown as the incline whisks you up to Grandview Avenue atop scenic Mt. Washington. Exit the incline, turn right onto Grandview and then a quick left onto Shiloh Street for the short one block walk to Redbeard's (201 Shiloh St - 412-431-3730) at the corner of Shiloh and W. Sycamore. Wash down a Redbeard's "Mountain Climber Burger" with their 34 OZ. "Big League Draft"!! Then after dinner, shed some of those Redbeard's calories by taking a leisurely stroll along Grandview Avenue and, from any of the observation pods overlooking the city, gaze down on the scenic panorama of Pittsburgh's Golden Triangle skyline, dramatically outlined by the confluence of the three rivers that mark its banks hundreds of feet below. Incline fare is $2.50 each way for adults, children under 11 ride for half fare each way and seniors 65+ ride free! The view at night is extraordinary so be sure to have your camera or I-phone handy.!!

SECTION XII-B: DOWNTOWN PITTSBURGH AND STRIP DISTRICT RESTAURANTS

- 1. Redbeard's Downtown Sports Bar & Grill - 144 Sixth Street - casual & fine dining menu - (412-261-2324) Downtown's best sports bar
- 2. McCormick and Schmick's - Corner of Wood St. and Oliver Ave - seafood and steaks - (412-201-6992)
- 3. Capital Grille - 301 Fifth Avenue - steaks and chops - (412-338-9000)
- 4. Christos Mediterranean Grille - 130 Sixth Street - authentic Greek cuisine - (412-261-6442)
- 5. Morton's Steakhouse - EQT Building - 625 Liberty Avenue - steaks & seafood- (412-261-7141)
- 6. Ruth's Chris Steak House - Building # 6 PPG Place - Third Avenue and Market Street - steaks & seafood - (412-391-4800)

- 9.Original Oyster House - 20 Market Square at Graeme Way - giant fish sandwiches and other seafood favorites- (412-566-7925)

There are also several restaurants located in the Strip District (a great shopping area especially on Saturday mornings) on Penn Avenue between 17th Street and 22nd Street. From downtown, simply follow Penn Avenue to the cross streets indicated above. Any Pittsburgher you encounter downtown can point you in the right direction. Great area to check out Pittsburgh sports souvenir shop bargains and a myriad of tempting ethnic food eateries, including the original location of the iconic Primanti Brothers Restaurant (on 18th Street between Penn and Smallman Streets), Wholey's Seafood Shop and Restaurant (on Penn Avenue) and two Italian markets, Pennsylvania Macaroni Company and Sunseri Brothers, serving takeout Italian pizza and hoagies (both also on Penn Avenue).

Be advised that there is no way of knowing at this time whether some of the Pittsburgh area restaurants listed on this page and on the previous two pages of this Information Packet will still be available for dining during our Fall Business Meeting and State Induction Banquet weekend due either to lingering COVID restrictions or to permanent closure as a result of the virus. As of this writing, they remain open.
